

Escora vases
Recycled Glass Jugs
 crateandbarrel.com

Light up your spaces this season with sculptural pendants that are bound to make a statement. Rustic glass jars, bottles and even light fixtures have that shabby chic look that's simplistic and so fitting for that spring fling air.

spring trends 2012

by DVIRA OVADIA

Spring 2012 brings us an array of products, trends and freshness that is bound to suit just about any palate. The mood for colour this seasons spans from bright whites combined with neutral and sandy tones, such as oatmeal and washed grays, as well as, vibrant hues with bold attitudes like pinks, aquas, blues and greens!

Bright pillows
 crateandbarrel.com

William floor storage
 potterybarn.com

Romantic rustic pieces are all the hype. Natural, distressed and white-washed woods for tables, cabinets, shelves and practical objects lend themselves to an assortment of design styles.

JOHN ROBshaw
 johnrobshaw.com

Marrakesh Pouf
 crateandbarrel.com

Block print patterns inspired by exotic countries abroad puts us in that spring frame of mind. The bright tones combined with flowing and vivid patterns are reminiscent of exotic places with warm climates.

When spring rolls around it seems to be a natural instinct to want to clean, purge and organize, and what better way to get inspired than charming products that are smart and functional. Getting those belongings sorted is ideal for everyday living, fancy hooks and over the door storage will inspire you to keep the clutter off the floor and tabletop surfaces.

Hooks and over the door storage
 potterybarn.com

JOHN ROBshaw
 johnrobshaw.com

Add character and wit to your space with prints, objects and images of elephants, horses, birds and owls. These are fun and playful and can be mixed in with just about any design style, from modern to traditional.

DVIRA OVADIA
 Dvira Ovadia manages and runs her own design firm offering a full range of design services. Dvira has appeared on numerous TV shows, most notably as the winner of From The Ground Up with Debbie Travis. For the past five seasons, Dvira held the positions of lead designer and art director for HGTV's Income Property and is currently in development of new seasons.
 dvira.com