

Dvira Ovadia (dvira.com)

URBAN Cottage

It seems like everywhere you turn today, there is something vintage, rustic or country chic. From natural woods, ruffled fabrics to textured glass, the look is explosive and is no longer specific to the cottage environment.

Ruffled Shower Curtain

Refresh your bathroom with apothecary jars, fresh white towels and a pretty ruffled border shower curtain. The simplicity of the country bathroom can work wonders in your modern home.

westelm.com

Woven Wingback Chair

Woven chairs are a classic staple. These comfy marvels lend themselves to any design look, from contemporary to traditional. These will be sure to inspire that retreat location.

potterybarn.com

Carly Chair

Modern florals with vibrant hues are all the hype in the textile industry. They have made their mark on soft accessories, bedding and even upholstery. A fun pair of accent chairs will be sure to liven up your space. The yellow frame spells refreshing; it is a pleasant detail that is not commonly seen.

crateandbarrel.com

Crossing Table and Pedestal Table

From trestle tables, to turned leg tables, these looks are penetrating into just about every style of home. These were once considered exclusively cottage, and are now loved by countless urban dwellers. Either in natural white-washed woods or the classic whites, these looks are timeless and sensible.
crateandbarrel.com

Victorian Tumblers & Glass Drink Dispenser

At your next lunchtime barbecue or dinner party, add some humble vintage inspiration. Colourful glass tumblers are cosy and casual. Whether you are serving lemonade or wine, these are enjoyable and laid-back.
potterybarn.com

Gray and White Striped Bedding

Bring some chic country living to your bedroom. Gorgeous gray and white striped bedding say modern cottage. This duvet cover sets out a fresh look for the spring flip; it is uplifting and unfussy.
westelm.com