Vintage retro is in full effect, inspirations from the '50s, '60s and '70s are popping up everywhere. Walnut tones and distressed leathers are all the hype. Danish Modern inspired pieces are favourites among many crowds and are fitting to modern, eclectic and artisanal looks.

The colour of the year is dramatic, animated and full of energy, and is vividly reminiscent of fiery sunsets. This is the perfect hue to help kick-start a New Year!

Exotic, global and ethnic finds make for great accent pieces and bold touches. English quilts, African prints and Indian-inspired saris and patterns are making their way onto household textiles with their bold hues. These vivid tones, textures and designs are even making their way onto our tabletops. Adding a dash of colour to your table never looked so tasty!

 Untreated, distressed and artisanal woods are a huge craze - the Modern French Country farmhouse look has gone mainstream. The look is current, chic and extremely desirable. Everything from beds, tables, chairs and mirrors to kitchen accessories is now available in that organic appeal. If it's rustic, reclaimed natural or white-washed wood it's a sure fit.
