

STYLE FILE

Every seating area deserves a little whimsy. Find tables that make a statement a standout from your neutral palette.
VISIT SUITE22.CA

An African feather headrest makes a luxurious statement while adding colour and texture. Hang one over a fireplace or create a grouping in a hallway or dining room.

VISIT SNOBSTUFF.COM

luxelook

Add a touch of chic to your living room. Luxurious throw blankets are the hottest accessory for your sofa

VISIT HERMES.COM

Luxurious spaces are all about textures, layers and cultural undertones. Natural colours that are reminiscent of the earth and nature are classic and timeless. Pieces that are vivid in colour and texture add character and life to everyday environments.

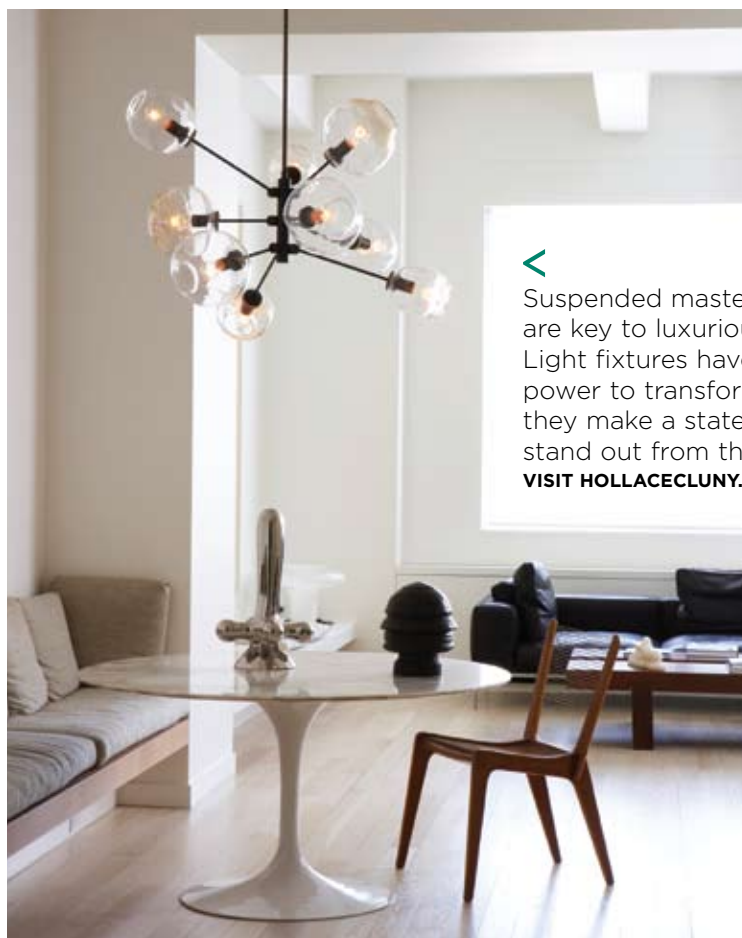

BY DVIRA OVADIA

16

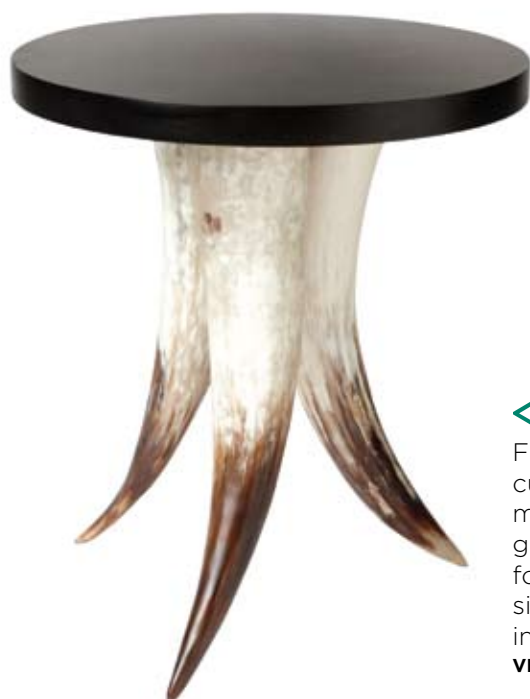

Original fine art is a luxury that always holds its value. Whether abstract or realist, the depth of an original art piece always tells a story.

VISIT OVADIAART.COM

Suspended masterpieces are key to luxurious design. Light fixtures have the power to transform a room, they make a statement and stand out from the ordinary.

VISIT HOLLACECLUNY.CA

Furniture pieces with cultural undertones make a statement. Try a grouping of stools at the foot of the bed, on the side of a sofa or nestled in front of a fireplace.

VISIT SNOBSTUFF.COM

Dvira Ovadia manages and runs her own design firm. She has appeared on numerous TV shows as a design expert, most notably as the winner of From The Ground Up with Debbie Travis. For the last six seasons, Dvira has been the lead designer & art director for HGTV's Income Property, and is currently in development of new seasons. www.dvira.com